The caption in every complaint shall state the name and address, if known, of each party. Subsequent pleadings and motions shall state the number of the case, the name of the judge to whom the case is assigned, the name of the first-party plaintiff, and first-party defendant on each side. Every pleading, motion, brief or other paper filed in a case shall be identified by title and shall bear the name (written, typewritten or printed) of the individual attorney, firm, if any, office address, telephone number and attorney registration number of counsel filing the same or, if there is no counsel, the address and telephone number of the party filing the same.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, an attorney who signs a pleading or motion shall be designated trial counsel, and shall try the case and be otherwise responsible for the action, on behalf of his/her party/client.

All complaints (except those wherein only individuals are named) shall set forth the name, address, designation of entity, registration status with the Ohio Secretary of State and/or registration status with another state if the entity is not registered in Ohio for all plaintiffs. If the plaintiff(s) is not a business entity licensed or otherwise registered to do business in the State of Ohio, the plaintiff(s) shall state the basis for permission to file a legal action in the State of Ohio without the proper registration status.

9.02 All Complaints shall state the general categorical nature of the action. The clerk is authorized to refuse to accept for filing any case that does not contain a case classification, indicating the category of the cause, as more particularly set forth in Local Rule 10(B), infra.

9.03 Civil Rule 12, prescribing Rule Day for pleadings, will be strictly enforced. However, parties may generally obtain one (1) extension of time without leave of court not to exceed thirty (30) days, in which to answer, plead or otherwise move, when no such prior extension has been granted, by filing a Journal Entry with the Clerk of Courts, thereon noting "First Leave" or works of similar import, with stipulation by or notice to opposing counsel. If any additional extension is requested, the parts desiring an extension must obtain the approval of the court.

9.04 Pleadings and motions may be amended as provided in Civil Rule 15, but no pleading or motion shall be amended by interlineations, except upon leave of court first obtained.

9.05 Depositions upon Oral or Written Examination, Interrogatories, Requests for Admission, Requests for Production of Documents, and answers and responses thereto, shall not be filed unless on order of the court, for use as evidence or for consideration of a motion in the proceeding. Papers filed with the court shall not be considered until proof of service is endorsed thereon, or separately filed. The proof of service shall state the date and manner of service, and shall be signed in accordance with Civil Rule 11.

9.06 Every motion shall state its nature with specificity, and be submitted and determined upon the papers hereinafter referenced. Oral argument of motions may be permitted on application and proper showing. Motions for a continuance will not be application and proper showing. Motions for a continuance will not be entertained unless made in writing and signed by counsel for the moving party and, if directed by the court, also signed by the MOVING PARTY.

9.07 Counsel is encouraged to cooperate in pre-trial discovery procedures to reduce, in every way possible, the filing of unnecessary discovery motions. To curtail undue delay in the administration of justice, no discovery motion filed under Rules 16 through 37 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, to which objection or opposition is made by the responding party, shall be taken under consideration by the court unless the party seeking discovery shall first advise the court, in writing, that after sincere attempts to obtain voluntary compliance by the responding party, they are unable to reach an accord. This statement shall recite those matters which remain in dispute and specify precisely those steps which have been taken by the party seeking discovery to obtain voluntary compliance. It shall be the responsibility of counsel for the party seeking discovery to initiate efforts and resolve any dispute before seeking the court's intervention.

9.08 Sanctions. The presentation of unnecessary motions, and the unwarranted opposition of motions which, in either case, unduly delay the course of an action through the courts, may be deemed "frivolous conduct" and, upon further motion and hearing, subject an offender to appropriate discipline, including the imposition of costs and/or payment of a reasonable attorney fee incurred in connection with defending against such conduct.

9.09 Motions for leave to withdraw as attorney in a civil case shall be made by written motion, filed with the Clerk of Courts, with copies served upon all other attorneys, or parties, in accordance with Civil Rule 5 and these Rules. Said motion shall be heard, normally within ten days of filing, by the judge to whom such case has been assigned. Written notice of such application shall be given to the client of the attorney seeking to withdraw, by certified mail, return receipt requested, stating the time, when, and before which judge, such application will be made. If such application is granted and the client does not appear at such hearing, the attorney, if permitted to withdraw, shall notify the client by certified mail, return receipt requested, to secure a new trial attorney within such time as may be designated by the court. A copy of such notice, together with the order authorizing withdrawal and the certified mail, return receipt requested, shall be filed and docketed in the cause, with a copy provided to the Assignment Commissioner.

9.10 CONSENT AND WAIVER OF SERVICE BY TRUMBULL COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION MAILBOX:

The maintenance by counsel of a Trumbull County Bar Association "mailbox" shall be deemed an explicit consent by counsel to receive in counsel's bar association "mailbox" held in counsel's individual name or firm's name any and all service by this Court, at the Court's option; counsel acknowledges that such bar association "mailbox" service shall be complete upon delivery to the bar association "mailbox"; and further, the maintenance by counsel of a bar "mailbox" shall also be deemed to constitute a waiver of any alleged imperfection of service. "Service" as denoted under this Local Rule shall be deemed to apply only as to service by this Court upon counsel in counsel's representative capacity as counsel of record in all pending matters before this Court, and not to counsel individually.

Notwithstanding any herein to all contrary, counsel who maintains a bar association "mailbox" may revoke the "consent" and "waiver" of service provisions under this Local Rule by executing a written "Notice of Revocation Mailbox" in a form substantially as follows:

"Now comes (name of attorney), who hereby gives notice of counsel's revocation of the consent to and waiver of service through counsel's Trumbull County Bar Association mailbox provided for in Local Rule 9.10, and hereby request that all future service be completed by the Clerk of Courts as specifically provided by the Civil Rules, or as otherwise provided by law.

(phone number)
(fax number)
(e-mail address)
(attorney registration number)

The above referenced "Notice of Revocation" shall be filed with the Clerk of Courts as part of the miscellaneous "In Re: docket of this Court."

9.11 ELECTRONIC SERVICE OF PROCESS

The Clerk of the Trumbull County Court of Common Pleas shall accept service of process methods as outlined in Civil Rule 4.1 Process: methods of service, which methods of service shall include "virtual" service of process utilizing advanced postal technology for service by certified mail. This advanced postal technology does not modify Civil Rule 4.1(1) Service by Certified Mail, but merely provides for advanced electronic and website technology in the sending of certified mail and receipt of confirmation utilizing the court's website to show to whom the mail was delivered, the date of delivery, and address where delivered, all in accordance with the now-existing Civil Rules.

All service of process of complaints or other documents served with virtual service of process are subject to review and/or challenge as further outlined in Civil Rule 4.1, with confirmation of service of process data being made available through this Clerk's office. Effective date December 7, 2006.

RULE 10

CASE FLOW MANGEMENT

A. SCOPE AND GOALS

It is the obligation of the judges of the Trumbull County Common Pleas Court, General Division, to operate the court in a manner that is lawful, fair, just and efficient both for the benefit of the citizens of Trumbull County and all other litigants that come before them. To that end, it is important that the court supervise the progress of al cases from filing to termination in a process that is fundamentally fair, and neither too deliberate nor too hasty. Within the bounds of applicable constitutional provisions, statutes, case law and rules governing the courts of Ohio, the court shall manage the sequence of events in litigation to ensure the timely disposition of all matters by trial, negotiated settlement, arbitration, mediation, or other means of appropriate dispute resolution.

It is, therefore, incumbent upon the judges to articulate orders in each case, and the uniform enforcement of procedural requirements and other rules and time deadlines applicable in any particular case or type of case. Counsel has a corresponding duty to know these rules and the time deadlines that apply to their cases, to comply with these rules and meet those deadlines and to inform the court of extraordinary circumstances which would cause the standard deadlines to work a substantial injustice to their clients.

These Case Flow Management rules shall apply to all civil and criminal cases filed in the general division of the Common Pleas Court of Trumbull County unless (1) the case, by its very nature, requires a more rapid adjudication such as equity matters, habeas corpus, etc.; (2) the case, because of court-imposed stays, interlocutory appeals, removed to federal court and remand, etc., requires a different schedule; or (3) the court, by written order, places the case on a different schedule for resolution based upon good cause shown. The deadlines set by the Ohio Rules of Superintendence for Common Pleas Court shall be construed as maximums, and shall not preclude the more rapid resolution of cases under these rules or by the assigned trial judge if he so orders. Any conflict between this Case Flow Management rule and any other local rules of the court shall be resolved in favor of the Case Flow Management rule.

B. CLASSIFICATION OF CASES, DEADLINES, TIMING

All cases filed after January 1, 1990, shall be classified in the following categories, and the classification shall be reflected in the case number. Cases shall be set for final disposition within these absolute time limits as set by the Ohio Rules of Superintendence for Common Pleas Courts:

Professional Tort 24 months
Product Liability 24 months
Other Torts 24 months
Workers' Compensation 12 months
Foreclosures 12 months
Administrative Appeal 6 months
Complex Litigation 36 months
Other Civil 12 months
Criminal 6 months

C. CIVIL CASES

1. Each court in the General Division shall cause, or have a member of its staff cause civil cases to flow within the time frames within this Case Flow Management rule.

a. An initial status conference shall be scheduled within ninety (90) days of the date the case is filed. The initial status conference may be conducted by a referee or bailiff, at the trial judge's option, and may be by telephone conference if previously approved. Parties and party representatives need not be present for the initial status conference if previously approved by the trial court. In addition, any party may move, in writing, for an initial status conference if previously approved by the trial court. Also, any party may move, in writing, for an initial status conference, prior to ninety (90) days, if that party feels his particular case so warrants a status conference on an accelerated docket. If the trial court determines that the case warrants an accelerated status conference, the conference shall be approved and a date and time shall be set for such accelerated status conference.

b. It shall be the duty of all counsel to come to the initial status conference fully prepared and authorized to enter into a binding status conference order, alternate dispute resolution order, and/or negotiation towards settlement of the case. Failure to be prepared may result in dismissal of the case for want of prosecution, default judgment, or other terms, fines or sanctions to enforce compliance, as the trial judge deems appropriate.

c. At the initial status conference, whether held by telephone conference call or in person, the discussion should include but not be limited to:

- 1) Joinder of parties;
- 2) Third-party practice;
- 3) Amendment of the pleading, if necessary;

- 5) Service of process;
- 6) Default judgment;
- 7) Motions under Civil Rules 12 and 19;
- 8) Issues concerning the Statute of Limitations, if necessary,
- 9) Proper classification and assignment of discovery deadlines, motion dates, and a final assignment of the case for trial;
- 10) The use of compulsory and/or binding arbitration, referee, mediation, or other means of dispute resolution; and
- 11) Settlement

d. At the initial status conference, the court may cause a "case schedule" to be prepared. That case schedule should include the following:

EXAMPLE OF CASE SCHEDULE:

e. If the trial court assigns the case to alternate dispute resolution at the initial status conference, he should also set the case for final trial assignment in those cases where the alternate dispute resolution may not be final or binding.

f. The court shall set the case for final trial assignment within the guidelines listed in RULE 10(B).

2. Final Pre-Trial Procedures.

a. At the time and date set at the initial status conference, or if the trial judge has set a date, a final pre-trial conference shall be held. The conference shall be conducted by the trial judge, if available, and all counsel shall be present with full settlement authority. If the real party in interest is an insurance company, common carrier, corporation, or other artificial legal entity, then the chosen representative must have full authority to negotiate the claim(s) the full extent of plaintiff's demand.

b. If the trial court so orders, no civil case need be finally pre-tried.

c. It shall be the duty of counsel to appear at pre-trial fully prepared and authorized to negotiate towards settlement of this case. Failure to be prepared may result in dismissal of the case for want of prosecution, a default judgment, or such other action to enforce compliance as the trial judge deems appropriate.

d. The trial court may require a pre-trial brief which should include the following, unless waived by a judge:

- 1) A brief description of parties' claims (one paragraph) to be read to jury upon voir dire;

- 2) A brief description of operative facts and listings of damages. Defendants to submit a brief description of defenses and operative facts;
- 3) If parties anticipate evidentiary rulings, please submit anticipated evidentiary problems;

- 6) Listing of all witnesses expected to testify;
- 7) A listing of all exhibits expected to be offered into evidence;

- 9) The estimated number of days required for trial;
- 10) Motions in limine, if any;
- 11) Trial briefs are to be hand-delivered by the attorneys to the trial court (after proper filing with the Clerk of Courts).

e. Any trial judge at the final pre-trial conference or trial shall have authority (1) to dismiss an action for want of prosecution, upon motion of defendant, upon failure or plaintiff or counsel to appear in person at any pre-trial conference or trial; (2) to order the plaintiff to proceed with the case and to decide and determine all matters, ex-parte, upon failure of the defendant to appear in person or by counsel at any final pre-trial conference or trial.

f. The failure of any attorney to comply with the final pre-trial procedures, without good cause, may subject the attorney or parties to terms, fines, or sanctions.

D. CHANGE OF THE TRIAL ASSIGNMENT DATE

1. Any request to change the trial assignment date shall be made, where possible, by written motion and shall be approved by the party requesting the change and/or contain a statement of acknowledgement, by counsel for that party, that the party approves the request for change of trial assignment date. The motion may be granted if it is supported by a showing of good cause.
2. A copy of the motion to change trial assignment date shall be served upon all counsel and any party not represented by counsel. A certificate of service shall be filed with the motion.
3. In the event that counsel requests a change of trial assignment date and does not have time to make a written motion, counsel is first required to telephonically communicate with all other counsel, or any party not represented by counsel, to receive their approval or to communicate their disapproval to the trial court.
4. If the trial assignment date is extended by the trial judge, the judge may require the party requesting the change to file a journal entry, within five (5) days, with the Clerk of Courts. That journal entry shall state the reasons for the modification of trial assignment date as was initiated by the trial judge.

E. CRIMINAL CASES

1. The Clerk of Courts shall cause the transcript of proceedings to be delivered to the Prosecutor's Office, for the purposes of processing the same to a Grand Jury, within twenty-four (24) hours of its receipt from the municipal or county court binding said transcript to the Common Pleas Court. The purpose of this rule is to help ensure speedy processing of the case within the speedy trial time guidelines provided by statute.

2. If a criminal case is indicted, the Assignment Commissioner shall cause arraignments to be set within ten (10) days after a case is indicted, unless the court orders otherwise in order to ensure disposition within speedy trial time limits.

3. At arraignment, the arraigning judge shall notify counsel and/or the defendant of a disposition hearing date. At the disposition hearing date, it shall be a requirement for the defendant to be present. Failure of the defendant to appear at the disposition hearing date could cause the prosecutor to request a capias to be issued by the court of jurisdiction. At the disposition hearing date, the following subjects should be discussed:

- a. Exchange discovery, or in the event discovery is not available, discuss dates when discovery will be completed;
- b. Potential plea bargains;
- c. If defendant accepts plea bargain, a date for the potential plea of guilty shall be set with the court of jurisdiction;
- d. In the event the defendant does not accept a plea bargain, the parties shall inform the court and the court shall cause the case to be set for final trial and/or pre-trial as the court deems necessary;
- e. In the event hearings are required on motions, counsel shall so notify the court and it shall set hearing dates as well as filing dates for any motions.

4. The trial court shall set the case for final disposition, either by trial or by plea, within the speedy trial times set by statute, unless the speedy trial time is tolled under the appropriate statutes as set forth in Sec. 2945.71, et seq.

RULE 11

ASSIGNMENT OF CIVIL CASES FOR TRIAL

11.01 All civil cases shall be assigned to a judge, pursuant to a system to be agreed upon by lot by the members of the court.

11.02 When a case which has been assigned for trial is settled, counsel for the party seeking affirmative relief shall immediately notify the civil assignment office and cause preparation and filing of the dispositive judgment entry.

11.03 The criminal assignment is to take precedence and shall be assigned in accordance with RULE 10(E), supra.

11.04 At any time prior to trial, if the trial judge determines that there is a proper basis for removing himself from a given case, he may assign the case to the administrative judge for reassignment.

RULE 12

REPRODUCTION OF HOSPITAL RECORDS

12.01 Upon motion of any party showing good cause therefore and notice to all other parties, the judge may order any hospital in the county, by any agent thereof competent to act in its behalf, to reproduce, by photostating or other recognized method of facsimile reproduction, all or any portion of designated hospital records or x-rays, which constitute or contain evidence pertinent to an action pending in this court. Such order shall direct the hospital to describe, by cover-letter, the portion(s) of the records reproduced, any omissions therefrom and to specify the usual and reasonable charges thereof. Such order shall designate the person(s) to whom such reproduction(s) shall be delivered or made available.

12.02 Objections to the admissibility of such reproduced hospital records shall be deemed reserved for ruling at the time of trial, without specific reservation in the order to reproduce. Reproductions made pursuant to this procedure may be admitted in evidence without further identification or authentication, but subject to rulings on objections that have been preserved.

12.03 The reasonable charge for reproduction of its records shall be paid directly to the hospital by the movant(s).

12.04 Where original records are produced in court and reproductions substituted, by agreement of the parties or by order of the court, the movant(s) shall be responsible for the reasonable cost thereof.

RULE 13

ARBITRATION

13.01 CUMPULSORY ARBITRATION.

To facilitate and expedite the administration of justice in the General Division of the Trumbull County Common Pleas Court, the following procedure for compulsory arbitration shall be followed in all civil cases:

13.02 CASES FOR SUBMISSION

A) Every civil case, except those involving title to real estate, equitable relief, or appeal, in which the right to a trial by jury exists and which the judge to who the case is assigned determines involves a real controversy of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) or less, shall be submitted to arbitration. The amount of controversy shall be determined by:

- (1) The amount of prayer;
- (2) The demand in settlement;
- (3) Any evaluation by the court at any time prior to trial.

13.03 BINDING ARBITRATION: WAIVER OF DE NOVO REVIEW.

Forms will be available to the parties, or their counsel, providing for a waiver of the right of de novo review by the trial court. When such forms have been duly executed by the parties, or their counsel, the parties shall have no right to appeal, except as otherwise provided by law, and the report of the arbitrator(s) shall be a final judgment in the case, unless exceptions are taken and allowed in accordance with RULE 13.22, infra. It shall be the duty of counsel for the prevailing party to see that judgment is entered on the award in accordance with RULE 13.15, infra.

13.04 SELECTION OF ARBITRATORS

A) A list of Arbitrators will be maintained by the Assignment Commissioner. This list will be comprised of members of the Trumbull County Bar Association. The members of the Bar qualified to so act shall include only those who have filed a consent with the Assignment Commissioner.

B) Cases shall be submitted to one Arbitrator selected by the Assignment Commissioner or, or the trial court, unless a party requests that an arbitration panel consisting of three (3) Arbitrators be assigned by the Assignment Commissioner or the trial judge.

(1) When an arbitration proceeds before a panel of three (3) Arbitrators, the chairman of the panel shall be selected by a majority vote of the Arbitrators. In the event the Arbitrators cannot select a chairman, the lawyer who is eldest in years of practice shall serve as chairman of the panel.

(2) Counsel may agree, prior to appointment by the Assignment Commissioner, to their own panel of three (3) Arbitrators, and shall transmit this concurrence in writing to the Assignment Commissioner. C) Within ten (10) days after notification of assignment of a case for arbitration, either party may request a replacement of the Arbitrator selected. If such request is made and the parties cannot agree to a replacement, each shall submit two (2) names from the arbitration list, within ten (10) days thereafter, from which the Assignment Commissioner or trial judge shall select one.

13.05 DISQUALIFICATION.

No attorney shall serve as an Arbitrator who is related, by blood or marriage, to any party to the case, or to any attorney of record in the case, or who is a law partner or associated with any attorney of record.

13.06 ASSIGNMENT OF CASES.

A) The Arbitrator(s) shall assign a trial date for each case. No case shall be assigned earlier than thirty (30) days or later than sixty (60) days, from date of the appointment of the Arbitrator(s), unless otherwise directed by the assigned judge, for good cause and with at least fifteen (15) days' notice of date of trial.

B) No disclosure shall be made to the Arbitrator(s), prior to filing of the report and award, of any offers or demands of settlement made by either party, except by agreement of the parties. Any Arbitrator who has knowledge of settlement demands and offers shall be disqualified. Prior to delivery of the court file to the Arbitrator or chairman of the arbitration panel, the Assignment Commissioner or trial judge shall place all notations, containing settlement demands or offers, in a sealed envelope which shall remain with the file, but which shall not be opened by the Arbitrator(s).

13.07 HEARINGS; WHEN AND WHERE; NOTICE.

Hearings shall be held at the place designated by the court, or by the assigned Arbitrator(s). No hearings shall be scheduled for Saturdays, Sundays, legal holidays, or evenings except upon agreement by counsel for all parties and the Arbitrator(s).

13.08 CONTINUANCES.

A) Cases may be continued by the Arbitrator(s), for good cause shown, for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days. Further continuances may be had only with the consent of the judge.

B) Wherever any case has been continued by the Arbitrator(s) for a period of sixty (60) days, the judge to whom the case was originally assigned may summon the parties or their counsel. The judge shall have the power to make any appropriate order, including an order of dismissal for want of prosecution or an order that the case be again assigned to the Arbitrator(s) and be heard and an award made, whether or not the defendant appears and defends.

13.09 DEFAULT OF A PARTY; FAILURE TO APPEAR.

A) In the event of the failure of any party to be present at the time and place set for hearing, the judge to whom the case was originally assigned shall have the power to make any appropriate order, including an order of dismissal.

B) The arbitration may proceed in the absence of any party who, after due notice, fails to be present or fails to obtain an adjournment. An award shall not be made solely on the failure of a party to appear, and the Arbitrator(s) shall require the other party to submit such evidence as may be required for making of an award.

13.10 CONDUCT OF HEARING: POWERS.

A) The Arbitrator(s) shall be the sole judge of the evidence offered, and conformity to legal rules of evidence shall not be necessary. All evidence shall be taken in the presence of the Arbitrator(s) and of all the parties, except where any of the parties is absent, in default, or any of the parties has waived his right to be present. The Arbitrator(s) may receive the evidence of witnesses by affidavit or written report, and shall give it such weight as deemed appropriate after consideration of any objections made to its admission.

B) Counsel shall, whenever possible, produce a party or witnesses at the hearing without the necessity of a subpoena.

C) The Arbitrator(s) shall have the general powers of a court including, but not limited to the following:

(1) Subpoenas. To cause the issuance of subpoenas to a witness to appear before the Arbitrator(s), and to request the issuance of an attachment, according to the practice of the courts, for failure to comply therewith.

(2) Production of Documents. To compel the production of all books, papers and documents deemed material to the case.

(3) Administering Oaths; Admissibility of Evidence. To administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses, to determine the admissibility of evidence; to permit testimony to be offered by deposition and to decide the law and the facts of the case.

(4) Evidentiary Admissibility of Bills, Estimates and Other Documentation of Special Damages, and of Records and Reports. In actions involving recovery for personal injury or property damage, bills, estimates and other special damages documentation, and records and reports may be offered and admitted into evidence, without further proof and over "hearsay" objection, for the purpose of proving the reasonableness of charges; the necessity therefore; and/or casual connection with the transaction in issue, PROVIDED THAT at least two (2) weeks' written notice of the proposed offering of same is given to the adverse party, accompanied by a copy of the following documents to be offered into evidence:

- (a) Itemized statements, invoices or bills of hospitals and health care professionals, including nurses and physical therapists;
- (b) Itemized statements, invoices, bills or receipts for prescribed medications, medical appliances and the like;
- (c) Itemized property damage repair bills or estimates;
- (d) Regularly-kept records, if duly-certified by their custodian;
- (e) Expert reports, if signed by the author;
- (f) Lost earnings verification, if signed by the employer or other person having first-hand knowledge thereof, and sufficiently detailed to include dates and amounts lost, together with an understandable computation of the total amount claims; and
- (g) Documentation of any other element of special damage, if sufficiently authenticated and detailed to the arbitrator's satisfaction as to its trustworthiness.

(5) Estimates. In the case of an estimate, the party intending to offer the estimate shall forward it, with his notice, to the adverse party, together with a statement indicating whether or not the property was repaired and, if it was, whether the estimated repairs were made, in full or in part, by attaching a copy of the receipted bill showing the items of repair made and the amount paid.

13.11 SUPERVISORY POWERS OF COURT.

The judge to whom the case was originally assigned shall have full supervisory power with respect to any question arising at the arbitration proceedings in the application of these rules.

13.12 WITNESS FEES.

Witness fees in any case referred to in arbitration shall be in the same amount as now or hereafter provided for witnesses in trials in the Common Pleas Court of Trumbull County, Ohio; may be ordered taxed as costs in the case; and the costs in any case shall be paid by the same party or parties who would pay them had the case been tried in the Common Pleas Court.

13.13 TRANSCRIPT OF TESTIMONY.

The Arbitrator(s) are not required to transcribe their proceedings. If any party desires a transcript, he shall provide a reporter and cause a record to be made. The party requesting same shall pay its cost, which shall not be considered costs in the case. Any party desiring a copy of any transcript shall be provided same by the reporter upon reasonable payment therefore.

13.14 REPORT AND AWARD.

A) Within thirty (30) days after the hearing, the Arbitrator(s) shall file a report and award with the Assignment Commissioner and, on the same day, forward copies to all parties or their counsel. The Assignment Commissioner shall make a note of the report and award on the docket, and forthwith file the original with the Clerk of Courts.

B) The report and award shall be signed by the Arbitrator(s). In the event all three (3) members do not agree on the report and award, the dissenting member shall write the word "Dissents" before his signature. A minority report shall not be required unless the Arbitrator elects to submit the same in unusual circumstances.

13.15 LEGAL EFFECT OF REPORT AND AWARD: ENTRY OF JUDGMENT.

The report and award, unless appealed as herein provided, shall be final and have the legal effect of a verdict. If no appeal is taken within the time and in the manner specified therefore, the court shall enter a judgment in accordance therewith. After entry of such judgment, execution may issue as in the case of other judgments.

13.16 COMPENSATION OF ARBITRATORS

A) Each Arbitrator signing an award shall receive, as compensation for his/her services, the fee of One hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00). When more than one claim arising out of the same transaction is heard at the same hearing, it shall be considered as one case insofar as compensation is concerned. In cases requiring a hearing of unusual duration or involving questions of unusual complexity, the judge to whom the case was originally assigned may, for good cause shown, allow additional compensation. The Arbitrator shall not be entitled to receive his/her fee until the filing of the report and award with the Assignment Commissioner. Fees paid the Arbitrator(s) shall not be taxed as costs, nor follow the award as other costs.

B) All compensation for Arbitrators shall be paid, upon proper warrant, from Trumbull County funds allocated to the Common Pleas Court of Trumbull County, Ohio.

C) In the event a case is settled or dismissed sooner than two (2) days of the scheduled hearing date, a report and award, based on such settlement, and certification must be signed by all parties or counsel and filed with the Assignment Commissioner.

13.17 RIGHT OF APPEAL.

Any party may appeal, from the award of the Arbitrator(s), to the Common Pleas Court. The right of appeal is subject to the following conditions, all of which shall be complied with within thirty (30) days after the award of the Arbitrator(s) is filed and time-stamped in the office of the Clerk of Courts.

13.18 NOTICE OF APPEAL AND COST.

A) The appellant shall pay Thirty Dollars ($30.00) to the Clerk of Courts and shall file, with the Clerk, a notice of Appeal, together with an affidavit that the appeal is not taken for delay, but because he believes an injustice has been done. A copy of such notice and affidavit shall be served upon opposing parties or their counsel.

B) The appellant shall first repay to Trumbull County, Ohio, by depositing, with the Clerk of Courts, all fees received by the Arbitrator(s) in the case in which the appeal is taken.

C) If the appeal results in a judgment different from that determined by Arbitrator(s), the court shall assess costs, including reimbursement of amounts required to be paid by the appellant to effect the appeal, against either both of the parties as it determines to be just.

13.19 POVERTY AFFIDAVIT ON APPEAL.

An appellant without funds may apply, by a written motion and affidavit, to the court stating that, by reason of poverty, he is unable to make the payments required for an appeal. If, after due notice to the opposite parties, the assigned judge is satisfied of the truth of the statements in such affidavit, he may order that the appeal of such party be allowed without payment of said amounts.

13.20 RETURN TO ACTIVE TRIAL LIST; TRIAL DE NOVO.

A) Upon the filing of the notice of appeal and the payment or waiver of the costs as hereinbefore provided, the Assignment Commissioner shall cause the case to be returned to the assigned judge for trial.

B) All cases which have been appealed shall be tried de novo by the assigned judge.

13.21 TESTIMONY OF ARBITRATORS ON APPEAL PROHIBITED.

In the event of an appeal from the arbitration award, the Arbitrator(s) shall not be called as witnesses as to what transpired before them as Arbitrators, upon any hearing de novo.

13.22 EXCEPTIONS AND REASONS THEREFOR.

A) Any party may file exceptions to the award of the Arbitrator(s), within thirty (3) days after the filing of the report and the award, for either misconduct or corruption of the Arbitrator(s).

B) Copies of said exceptions shall be mailed to each Arbitrator and the Assignment Commissioner within forty-eight (48) hours after filing, and said exceptions shall be forthwith assigned for hearing before the assigned judge.

13.23 Exhibits received in evidence during arbitration hearings shall be marked for identification purposes, in either a distinguishable numerical or alphabetical sequence, and are to be further identified by designating the offering party.

In the event an arbitration award is not appealed as hereinabove provided, or in the event that an appeal is processed pursuant to the foregoing sections and the case is concluded prior to a trial de novo, each party shall have sixty (60) days after either of the foregoing events to obtain exhibits offered in evidence in such arbitration proceedings. The Assignment Commissioner is authorized to dispose of such exhibits if there is a failure to obtain them within this time frame.

RULE 19

RECEIVERSHIPS

In all cases where receivers are appointed by this court, the following shall apply:

A) Unless the court specifically authorizes the receiver to continue a business, he shall expeditiously take control of the assets of the debtor, give notice to all known creditors of his appointment and afford them opportunity to present and prove their claims; cause the assets to be inventoried and appraised; determine the validity and priority of creditor's claims; and take such steps as may be necessary to liquidate the assets and make cash distribution among the various classes of creditors. A receiver cannot proceed to act until he has filed, with the Clerk of Courts, a court-approved receiver's bond with proper surety, in the amount and form ordered by the court.

B) After approval of the receiver's bond, the receiver must obtain his general powers from the court, contained in an appropriate judgment entry, which powers shall include an order enjoining all secured and unsecured creditors from levying, executing, attaching, or suing on their respective claims, and shall further direct that all monies received by them, after the appointment of the receiver, shall be transferred to the receiver's general fund. The priorities among the creditors shall then be determined at a hearing on the matter at a later date, and shall be determined by order of the court. Within two (2) months after his appointment, the receiver shall report to the court, submitting his inventory and appraisal, and including his account of receipts and expenditures to date. Such documents shall be filed with the Clerk. These several matters shall be considered by the judge to whom the case is assigned, and his approval thereof shall be by entry, approved first by the receiver and his counsel.

C) Semi-annually, after filing the first report with inventory, appraisal and account, the receiver shall file consecutively-numbered reports, with accounts, for approval by entry by the court as to all receipts and expenditures made by the receiver during the reporting period, together with a summary of plans for future conduct of the receivership. The validity and priority of the various claims shall be determined by the court and not by the receiver.

D) In cases involving receivers appointed to take charge of property and to collect rents and other income, the receiver may expend funds, without first having obtained court approval, to pay for insurance premiums, water and utility bills, and make emergency repairs as are necessary for the proper maintenance of the property. For authority other than that, the receiver shall make application to the court. All claims not filed with the receiver, after notice has been given by a creditor, shall be deemed barred, as provided by law.

E) In all receiverships in which property appraised in excess of $2,000.00 is to be put up for public or private sale, the receiver shall file, in advance of such sale, a report with the court showing the amount of expenditures incurred or to be incurred prior to the time the sale is to be conducted. All public and private sales conducted pursuant to this rule shall not be considered final or consummated until approved and confirmed by court entry.

F) An application for payment of partial or final receiver and receiver counsel fees shall be filed with the Clerk for approval by the court. Notice of filing shall be filed with the Clerk for approval by the court. Notice of filing shall be mailed, by ordinary mail, to all counsel of record in the pending matter. Such application shall show time spent on enumerated items; amount of money collected, disbursed and on hand; the status of secured and unsecured creditor's claims, including amounts claimed; payments made thereon and balances due; the amounts and dates of prior fees authorized in the case; and an estimate of the amounts and dates of prior fees authorized in the case; and an estimate of the amount of time necessary to complete the work in the receivership and make final distribution. The court may approve the application, or set it for hearing, not sooner than ten (10) days after the filing of the application.

G) Failure to file an inventory and appraisal, accounts or other reports as contemplated by the rule will constitute cause for removal of the receiver and/or his attorney, and for withholding of fees for the receiver and/or his attorney.

RULE 20

DEBTOR'S EXAMINATION REFEREES

In cases where the court has approved the appointment of a referee to conduct a debtor's examination pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Sec. 2333.09, such referee shall be paid a minimum fee of $50.00 by the requesting party at the completion of such examination, which fee charge may be taxed to the costs.

21.04 County Treasurer a Necessary Party In all foreclosure actions under this Rule, it shall be necessary to name the Trumbull County Treasurer as a Defendant. The Clerk shall reject for filing any foreclosure complaint that fails to join the Trumbull County Treasurer except upon prior leave of Court.

21.05 Title Report Premium The expense of the title work required under this Rule, exclusive of the premium required by the Ohio Department of Insurance, shall be allowed without prior leave of Court, in an amount not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300.00) for each parcel of property and shall be taxed as part of the costs of the case.

21.06 Judgment Entry and Decree of Foreclosure All proposed judgment entries shall be circulated for approval to the other parties in the case and shall be a part of the file prior to the date of dispositive hearing. For the purpose of reporting by the trial judge to the Supreme Court in foreclosure cases, the judgment entry will determine the case to be closed. All other proceedings in foreclosure cases will proceed according to law.

21.07 Precipe for Sale All precipes for sale of property under judgment decree of foreclosure must include a property description approval form as required by the Trumbull County Auditor. These forms shall be made available online for the convenience of judgment creditors. The Sheriff shall not set any case for Sale unless said property description approval form has been received. In cases where the Plaintiff is unable to receive approval of the property description from the Trumbull County Auditor, the case shall not be set for Sale until the Plaintiff or moving creditor obtains separate approval from the Court.

21.08 Failure to Comply Failure to comply with the foregoing rule shall be grounds for dismissal of an action. Dismissal may be granted on motion of any party or upon order of the Court.

RULE 22
SHERIFF'S SALES

22.01 Time and Place of Sale Sheriff's Sales and all other Judicial Sales shall be held regularly in the Trumbull County Administration Building, or in any other area of convenience and as the case requires, at a time and place as designated by the Administrative Judge of this Court. Notice of the location of the scheduled Sales shall be included within any notice of publication of said Sale as required under Ohio law.

22.02 Registration of Bidders Bidders shall register with the Trumbull County Sheriff prior to Sale and shall be issued bidding identification. Successful purchasers shall provide the information required under O.R.C. §2329.271 to the Trumbull County Sheriff, the officer conducting the Sale, or their respective representatives immediately at the conclusion of the Sale.

22.03 Successful Purchaser / Required Deposit In every Sheriff's Sale of real property, the purchaser (unless the purchaser is the United States of America, the State of Ohio, or a political subdivision of this State), shall be required to deposit in cash or by certified check payable to the Sheriff, not less than ten percent (10%) of the amount of such accepted bid, but in no event shall such deposit be less than three thousand dollars ($3,000.00), unless said deposit is for the entire purchase price. Where the purchase price is less than three thousand dollars ($3,000.00), payment in full must be made as if it were a deposit under this Rule.

All deposits and/or payments required under this Rule must be made with the Sheriff by 3:00 PM on the date of Sale. If the deposit and/or payment under this Rule is not received on the date of Sale, the Sheriff shall immediately re-offer the property for sale upon the request of the creditor/Plaintiff and the bidder shall be in contempt of Court. The deposit monies shall be used first to satisfy all costs and fees of the Sale under the Ohio Revised Code. The purchaser under this Rule shall be separately responsible for any and all additional conveyance fees and recording fees not included in the successful bid pursuant to the Ohio Revised Code.

The unpaid balance of the purchase price shall be due and payable to the Sheriff within thirty (30) days from the date of the Confirmation of the Sale. The purchaser shall be required to pay interest on said unpaid balance, at ten percent (10%) per annum, from the date the balance is due. Any interest received shall be pro-rata and distributed by the Sheriff to the parties entitled to distribution of the proceeds of Sale, in the proper order of priority.

EXCEPTION FOR FIRST LIENHOLDERS: If the successful bidder is also the first lienholder after costs, taxes, and assessments, the deposit under this rule shall be waived, but all necessary payments for costs, fees, taxes and assessments, as well as any all recording and conveyance fees required to be paid at the time of Sale under the Ohio Revised Code shall be paid by the purchasing first lienholder, or any other party exempted from this rule, within fourteen days of the Sale date. The party entitled to this exception for first lienholders shall, within fourteen days of the Sale, prepare and produce to the Sheriff separate instruments of payment payable to each entitled party for the following: 1) Court costs (less any deposit to be applied); 2) All Sheriff fees and other fees as Ordered to be paid in the Confirmation; 3) Real Estate Taxes and Assessments to the County Treasurer; 4) Conveyance / transfer taxes and/or fees to the Trumbull County Auditor; 5) Recording fees to the Trumbull County Recorder; and 6) any other fee specifically required under Ohio law or necessary in the given case.

All payments under this Rule must be made before the deed will be recorded by the Sheriff or officer who conducted the Sale. In no event should this Rule be construed in such a way as to cause delay of payment to entitled creditors pursuant to the Confirmation of Sale and under the guidelines and timetables established under Ohio law. The Court reserves the right in each case to alter the terms of any Sale.

22.04 Real Estate Taxes In all judicial and foreclosure Sales, the purchaser shall pay the real estate taxes pursuant to O.R.C. §323.47, and pursuant to law, said taxes shall include:

- (a) Taxes and assessments the lien for which attaches before the Confirmation of Sale but that are not yet determined, assessed, and levied for the year in which Confirmation occurs, apportioned pro rata to the part of that year that precedes Confirmation, and any penalties and interest on those taxes and assessments;

(b) All other taxes, assessments, penalties, and interest the lien for which attached for a prior tax year but that have not been paid on or before the date of Confirmation, as estimated by the Trumbull County Treasurer pursuant to O.R.C. §323.47.

For the purposes of enforcement of this rule, the date of Confirmation shall be deemed to occur thirty days following the Sheriff Sale, unless said date is changed by the Court by way of motion or upon stipulation among the interested parties, the purchaser, and the County Treasurer.

In cases where the purchaser is not the first lienholder after real estate taxes and assessments, the Trumbull County Treasurer may require that Real Estate Taxes be paid directly by said purchaser, or the Sheriff may pay the Treasurer from all funds received from the purchaser. In any event, the purchaser shall not pay more than his or her required bid except as otherwise stated in these Rules or as is otherwise provided under Ohio law.

22.05 Post Sale Procedure The Sheriff or officer conducting the Sale shall make return of the writ of execution within seven days of the Sale. The Attorney for the creditor who moved for the Sale shall submit a Confirmation entry to this Court within fourteen days of the Sale. The proposed Confirmation submitted by the Attorney for the moving creditor shall include either a verification form obtained from the Trumbull County Treasurer and/or signed approval from the Trumbull County Prosecuting Attorney, as well as the written approval of all represented lienholders or their representatives.

A moving creditor and/or Plaintiff who fails to submit a proposed entry of Confirmation within the allowable time shall be liable for contempt, upon motion of the purchaser, and shall pay to the purchaser the costs and Attorney fees incurred, together with any fines that may be imposed by the Court.

Unless proper written objection to the Confirmation entry is made, said entry shall be approved by the Court pursuant to O.R.C. §2329.31, if the Court finds the requirements of R.C. Chapter 2329 have been met. If proper written objection to the Confirmation is made by a party, the Court shall determine the validity of the objection and make an order determining the issue. After the Confirmation is signed, the Court that confirmed the Sale shall forthwith cause the Sheriff to file the Confirmation with the Clerk of Courts. The Attorney shall then prepare the deed and, if the Plaintiff is the successful purchaser, the conveyance form(s) required by Trumbull County within seven days of receiving the Confirmation entry pursuant to O.R.C. §2329.36.

The Court hereby adopts a short form recommended deed pursuant to O.R.C. §2329.36, as follows:

I, (Sheriff Name), Sheriff of Trumbull County, Ohio, pursuant to the Order of Sale entered on _____, the Confirmation of Sale entered on _____, and in consideration of the sum of (Sale price) dollars, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, does hereby GRANT, SELL and CONVEY unto (Grantee), all the rights, title, and interest of the parties in Trumbull County Court of Common Pleas Case (Case number), captioned (Plaintiff v. Defendant), and all pleadings therein incorporated herein by reference in and to the following Land and Tenements situated in the County of Trumbull, State of Ohio, known and described as follows, to wit:

(Property Legal Description)

The short form deed, or any other deed prepared, shall also include reference to the permanent parcel number(s), prior owner, and prior instrument, and shall otherwise comply with Ohio law.

22.06 Purchaser's Failure to Comply In the event a purchaser fails to pay the balance due on the purchase price and complete the purchase within said thirty (30) days after the date of Confirmation of Sale, he or she shall be in contempt of this Court and the Sheriff, or other interested party, may forthwith cause a citation to issue commanding such defaulting purchaser to appear before the Judge of this Court having such matters in charge, and show cause why he should not be punished. Upon a finding of contempt, the Court shall proceed in determining punishment, including the forfeiture of the deposit, under O.R.C. §2329.30.

22.07 Appraisal Fees Appraisal fees shall be based on the Auditor's last tax appraisal of the property as shown by his duplicates and the area of the County where the property is located. The fees shall be $75.00 per appraisal per case.

Compensation for appraisal fees may be obtained in special cases, and for commercial parcels, by approval of Court, and for good cause shown.

22.08 Sheriff to Post Rules The Sheriff shall keep a copy of this entire Rule conspicuously posted at the place where Sheriff Sales are conducted and shall call attention thereto before receiving bids. The County shall place required forms under this Rule and other assistance for parties, attorneys, bidders and/or purchasers on the County's internet website.

22.09 Failure to Comply Failure to comply with these Rules shall subject a party, an attorney, a bidder and/or a purchaser to Contempt of this Court.

RULE 23

AMENDMENT OF LOCAL RULES OF COURT

ADOPTION OF LOCAL RULE 27 : CREATION OF SPECIALIZED CRIMINAL DOCKET

1. Creation of Specialized Criminal Docket

In order to coordinate and integrate substance abuse treatment and other related services to low-level felony offender with drug dependency problems, in the interest of reducing substance abuse, crime, and recidivism, the Court hereby creates, pursuant to Sup.R.36.02 effective January 1, 2013, the following specialized docket:

TRUMBULL COUNTY DRUG COURT

A Drug Court Advisory Committee is hereby established to provide input on Drug Court policies and operations, whose members shall serve at the discretion of the Drug Court Judge, so designated from amongst the Common Pleas Judges. Additionally, A Drug Court Team is hereby established, and shall consist of the Drug Court Judge, a Drug Court Coordinator, the Prosecuting Attorney, the Public Defender Office, NEOCAP, the Adult Probation Department and such other members as deemed necessary and proper by the Drug Court Judge.

2. Placement on the Trumbull County Drug Court Docket

Criminal defendants may participate in the post-conviction Drug Court Program, at the discretion of the originally-assigned Judge, the Prosecuting Attorney, and the Drug Court Team. There is no legal right to participate in the Drug Court program, and the decisions of the Trumbull County Prosecutor and the Drug Court Team regarding admission are final. In order to have his/her case placed on the Drug Court Docket, a defendant must satisfy all of the following conditions:

3. Post-Conviction Program

A. The defendant must apply for acceptance into the Post-Conviction Drug Court Program on an application form made available by the Trumbull County Prosecuting Attorney, who shall make the initial determination as to eligibility. In order to be eligible for the Post-Conviction Drug Court Program, applicants must meet the following criteria:

1. The defendant cannot be charged with O.V.I., drug trafficking, sex offenses, offenses involving the use of a deadly weapon, offenses involving children as victims, or violent offenses involving a victim with a serious injury, or any offense with facts or circumstances that the Trumbull County Prosecutor deems to make the defendant ineligible.
2. The defendant must have a substance abuse/dependency problem, and must reside in Trumbull County.
3. There must be no crimes of violence in the defendant's past, unless waived by the Trumbull County Prosecutor.

B. Upon being approved for Post-Conviction Drug Court by the Prosecuting Attorney and the Drug Court Team, a defendant shall, upon being properly advised of all constitutional rights and in open Court, enter a plea of "guilty" to the felony offense. The Court shall order a preliminary drug and alcohol assessment from a licensed treatment provider. The defendant must fully cooperate and comply with all requirements placed upon him/her by the Adult Probation / Adult Parole Authority and licensed treatment providers during the assessment/evaluation process. Once the assessment process is successfully completed, the Drug Court Team shall meet to assess the defendant's suitability for Drug Court and devise a treatment plan.

C. The Drug Court Team shall notify the Court of its determination as a defendant's acceptance into program and the devised treatment plan. The Court then may in its sole discretion, adopt the recommendations of the Drug Court Team and sentence the defendant to complete the Drug Court Program as a condition of a sentence of community control. An application by a defendant to enter the Drug Court Program operates as an effective waiver of a pre-sentence investigation. The Court may further sentence a defendant to complete the Drug Court Program as a result of a community control violation or as a condition of judicial release. If sentenced to the Drug Court Program, the defendant shall execute a Drug Court Participation Agreement, accepting the terms and conditions of participation in the Trumbull County Drug Court Program Handbook, both of which are fully incorporated herein by reference.

4. Drug Court Case Assignment
